Board orientation – College Centre of Board Excellence

Facilitators:

Victoria Prince, Incorporated Partner, Borden Ladner Gervais

James M. MacKay, Managing Partner, Berkeley Consulting Group

New board members and board staff want to make a contribution to the vibrancy of their boards. Through this session, participants will gain a deeper understanding of the relationships of the college board between the president, board chair and other board members and will strategize on how to contribute to — or facilitate — a healthy and smart dialogue at board meetings. It is also an opportunity for each person to initiate his/her personal governance professional development plan and discuss his/her legacy to the college's board.

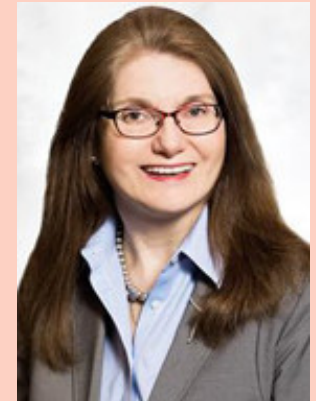

Board orientation – preliminary agenda

Delegates are asked to bring a copy of the CCBE Manual for Effective College Governance to the session as it will be referred to throughout the session.

(This session is mandatory for the Good Governance Certificate.)

Session is open to Ontario and non-Ontario college governors and board staff. Pre-registration is required. Breakfast (7 a.m. to 8 a.m.) available.

Location: Dominion Ballroom, 2nd floor

Not only are they actively pursuing their goals in the college academic setting, but they have been also been elected to serve as a governor for a one-year period. The purpose of this workshop is to provide student governors with a learning and networking opportunity to further their growth in their new role. Areas covered will include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Unique issues that student governors face and how to address them.

- What is the role of the local student association/government?
- Equality at the board table, how can I contribute?
- Lessons learned from former student governors.
- Balancing academic and board responsibilities.

This workshop will provide an excellent opportunity for student governors to build their network. Join us for this interactive discussion to build your capacity as a student governor.

Concurrent sessions

Select one of the three sessions.

Session 1 – Released in the wild: Undergraduates and the problem of growing up

While undeniably healthy, children in today's adult-controlled society have fallen behind in their capacity to take on the world and to deal with life's challenges. This session looks at how educators can facilitate students' maturation and handle well-intentioned but interfering parents.

Speaker: Alex Russell, clinical psychologist, co-author of Drop the Worry Ball

Alex Russell's book signing starts at 11:45 a.m. in the Exhibit Hall.

Session 2 – Technology, transformation and sustainability: The challenges for higher education

It's not unusual for a technology-based learning initiative to be announced with great fanfare and then quickly disappear without a trace. This session will use two models – SAMR and EdTech Quintet – to develop successful processes for the long-term use of the technology.

Speaker: Ruben R. Puentedura, Founder and President, Hippasus (creator of the SAMR model)

Session 3 – Best practices in international education

Speaker: TBC

Noon to 1:15 p.m.

Lunch

Presentation of the Minister's Lifetime Achievement Award

1:15 p.m. to 2:30 p.m.

Keynote address:
The U.S. election and inequality

Featured speaker: Robert B. Reich

The former secretary of labor will discuss what this year's U.S. election means for the United States and Canada and its effect on inequality. Reich, who was named one of the 20th century's 10 most effective cabinet secretaries by Time magazine, is the author of several books. His latest — Saving Capitalism: For the Many, Not the Few — is about the breakdown of capitalism in America.

2:30 p.m. to 3 p.m.

Refreshment break and exhibit hall

Book signing: Robert B. Reich

Location: Grand Ballroom East

3 p.m. to 4 p.m.

Concurrent sessions

Select one of the two sessions.

Session 4 – Successful integration of mobile learning initiatives

Mobile learning allows students to stay connected beyond the classroom, linking online experiences with face-to-face interactions, and workplace-integrated learning experiences to the classroom. In this session, learn how to successfully engage mobile learners — of all ages — where they live.

Moderator: Maya Castle, Higher Education Executive, Apple Canada

Speakers: Jason Dewling, Vice-President of Academic and Research, Olds College

Donna Church, Vice-President, Academic, Lambton College

Session 5 – Eight trends that are changing the digital landscape

Every year, there are new social networks, apps and trends that shape the way educators buy products and services, search online, and connect with the public, students and others. This session will highlight the larger digital trends to pay attention to — from the sharing economy to virtual reality — and provide advice on how to be ready for what's next.

Speaker: Erin Bury, Managing Director, 88 Creative
